CIVIL SIDE.

Corrigendum dated 14th December 1905, to the Rule of Practice No. 122, dated the 26th September 1905.

The Chief Court directs that the following corrections be made in the above Rule of Practice:—

1. Insert the following between Nos. 15 and 17 in the table D to the appendix to the said Rule of Practice:—

No.	Description of Court Registers, Books and Papers.	Number of years for which Registers, etc., are to be retained.
16	Other official correspondence relating to matters which have terminated	3

2. Omit the words "and the Hindu Wills Act (XXI of 1870)" in the table C 1 (b) in the above appendix.

CRIMINAL SIDE.

Rule of Practice No. 76, dated 6th December 1905.

Under Section 554 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, and with the concurrence of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, the following rule is issued by the Chief Court for regulating the practice of the Criminal Courts in regard to the disposal of property produced before the said Courts, or in their custody or regarding which any offence appears to have been committed.

When a Court is of opinion that it cannot try a case brought before it by reason of the offence complained of having been committed beyond its jurisdiction, any exhibits produced in the case should, if practicable, be retained under its control for the period of two months, to allow of proceedings being taken in the proper Court.

for Registrar.

MYSORE REVENUE SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT DEPARTMENT.

Notification No. 585, dated Bangalore, 21st December 1905.

It is hereby notified for general information that the revised assessment in 171 villages of the late Budihal Taluk, of which 126 villages now belong to the Chiknayakanhalli Taluk of the Tumkur District and forty-five villages to the new Hosdurga Taluk of the Chitaldrug District, having been sanctioned by Government, the announcement of the same under Section 113 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code will be commenced at Chiknayakanhalli on or about the 10th January 1906.

J. P. GRANT,
Survey and Settlement Commissioner in Mysore.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 2082—P. & A. 321, dated 7—8th December 1905.

To—The Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department, of all Districts and Officer in charge, State Huzur Treasury, Bangalore.

Instances of payments being made to illiterate pensioners on their marks and illegible and smudged unattested thumb impressions having been noticed during the course of audit in this office of the vouchers connected with pension payments, the Comptroller has the honor to request that all pension-paying officers be so good as to see that in future illiterate pensioners are paid only on vouchers containing their thumb impressions taken in the manner prescribed in Government Proceedings No. 6667-706—R. F. 18-99, dated 21st March 1900, and that when pensioners do not attend in person, and in the case of Purdha pensioners, such impressions should invariably be attested by some well-known respectable person.

2 Signatures in other than the English language should invariably be transliterated by the Treasury before transmission of the vouchers to this office.

3. Receipt stamps affixed on pensioners' vouchers should be completely defaced or punched so that they may not be fit either for removal or further use by anybody.

N. G. BASU,
Comptroller.

SPECIAL AUDIT DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 2083—H. B. 635, dated 28th December 1905.

To—The Heads of all Offices.

Instances of delay in giving intimation to the Deputy Commissioners of the death or retirement of officials from whom house-building advances granted by Government are outstanding, having been brought to light, the Comptroller has the honor to request that prompt and
